

Welcome to YCPC!!!

We are an inclusive, welcoming, come-as-you are, Christ centered community of faith. As such, we recognize that those who worship with us come from many different faith traditions, and some from no tradition at all. Accordingly, our worship is fairly informal and we encourage you to engage with it in whatever way you feel comfortable.

We are a spiritual community of different minded believers, sharing one heart. We strive for justice and peace among all people, and bring support and hope to those that Jesus called the least of his sisters and brothers.

We invite everyone to join in our worship, our communion, and our community. "Everyone" includes believers and agnostics, conventional Christians and questioning skeptics, LGBTQ and straight, females and males, Jews and Gentiles, the despairing and the hopeful, and any other descriptor that may fit you.

We extend a special welcome to all who are visiting. Please sign our guest book in the narthex. If this is your first visit, please select an agate from the basket. Please also print your name and mailing address in a red attendance book located in each row of the sanctuary.

Large print bulletins are on the east and west tables in the narthex. Personal PA receivers for the hearing impaired can be obtained by speaking with one of the ushers.

Join us for fellowship immediately following morning worship. This is a time for coffee and conversation.

We're glad you're here!

GATHERING AROUND THE WORD

Hymn-Sing (9:45)

A Time of Centering

Song of the Shattering Vessels

Peter Cole

Either the world is coming together
or else the world is falling apart—
here—now—along these letters,
against the walls of every heart.

Today, tomorrow, within its weather,
the end or beginning's about to start—
the world impossibly coming together
or very possibly falling apart.

Now the lovers' mouths are open—
maybe the miracle's about to start:
the world within us coming together,
because all around us it's falling apart.

Even as they speak, he wonders,
even as the fear departs:
*Is that the world coming together?
Can they keep it from falling apart?*

The image, gradually, is growing sharper;
now the sound is like a dart:
It seemed their world was coming together,
but in fact it was falling apart.

That's the nightmare, that's the terror,
that's the Isaac of this art—
which sees that the world might come together
if only we're willing to take it apart.

The dream, the lure, isn't an answer
that might be plotted along some chart—
as we know the world that's coming together
within our knowing's falling apart.

Welcome
